

ADVANCED MULTIMEDIA BOOT CAMP

Multimedia Training for Journalism Professionals and Educators | Jan. 6-10, 2010
Freedom Forum Diversity Institute | John Seigenthaler Center, Nashville, Tenn.

To apply for this workshop, registrants must have participated in one of the Freedom Forum Diversity Institute's multimedia training programs.

Learn how to:

- Use Advanced Final Cut editing techniques for video storytelling.
- Shoot and edit a mini-documentary.
- Story board your project.
- Learn advanced video shooting techniques.
- Create a WordPress blog to host a project.
- Use Google Maps and add images and video.
- Embed Google Maps and photos in your blog.
- Encode video and post it on your blog.
- Incorporate Twitter and Facebook Connect on your blog.
- And more!

What you will take away from this course:

- Advanced video skills.
- A completed WordPress blog with your video and map project.
- Fast and efficient production skills in Final Cut.
- Advanced effects in Final Cut, including text manipulation and motion.
- Ideas for producing multimedia projects.
- Binder with Final Cut techniques, Google Maps how-to and more.

Cost: $850 (some meals included). Reduced-rate lodging offered at additional cost. Space is limited — register early.

FREEDOM FORUM DIVERSITY INSTITUTE

Freedom Forum Diversity Institute | 1207 18th Ave. S. | Nashville, TN 37212 | Registration application at freedomforumdiversity.org